SUNY ONEONTA DEFEATS ITHACA 3-1
Red Dragons take control in the second half

Three unanswered second half goals by SUNY Oneonta was more than enough to erase a 1-0 halftime deficit this afternoon in a victory against visiting Ithaca College. The Red Dragons have now won three of its last four games to raise its overall record to 4-7.

Jacqueline Camp

Three different Red Dragons scored in the contest including junior Ainsley Stoll's (Williamsville/Williamsville North) scoring her team-leading sixth of the season that tied the game early in the second half.

Oneonta took a 2-1 lead in the 52nd minute when sophomore Jacqueline Camp (Queensbury/Queensbury) was able to get her stick on a shot by freshman Ashley Johnson (Saratoga Springs/Saratoga Springs) off a corner.

Ten minutes later junior Alysia Basher (Lancaster/Lancaster) notched an insurance goal off an assist from senior Kathryn Kubaryk (Warrensburg/Warrensburg). Kubaryk finished the contest with a pair of assists as she also set up Stoll's game-tying goal with a tremendous rush up field.

Ithaca's lone goal of the contest came in the 24th minute by senior Annie Onzik (Shavertown, PA/Bishop O'Reilly). She redirected a shot that was headed wide by junior Katherine Brown (Akron/Akron) into the back of the goal.

Junior goalie Leslie Dauphinais (Harpursville/Harpursville) made five saves in the game for Oneonta to pick up her fourth win of the season.

Oneonta will be back in action again this Saturday when they travel to New Paltz for a SUNYAC game beginning at 1:00 p.m.
