

Roger Weaver
Baseball

1972-1976

SUNYAC Player of the Year, 1975

Three-Time All-SUNYAC

Professional Baseball Career

Weaver was drafted by the Detroit Tigers in 1976 in the 16th round after a stellar four-year career on the hill and in the outfield for the Red Dragons. During his career he was a SUNYAC All-Star three times and was instrumental in leading the 1974 squad to the ECAC Upsate New York Championship. His career highlight was throwing a no-hitter against Brooklyn College in 1975. He spent five years in the Tigers' Organization and pitched for the major league team in the 1980 season where he went 3-4 with a 4.10 earned run average.

A native of St. Johnsville, N.Y., Weaver currently resides in Canojoharie where he is a Market Representative for Fulmont Mutual Insurance Company.
