

New Retention Standards for Undergraduate Students

Minimum retention standards for all degree-seeking undergraduate students have changed, effective with the fall 2005 semester.

First semester freshmen: 1.25 or higher overall GPA

First semester transfers: 1.50 or higher overall GPA

All second semester students: 1.75 or higher overall GPA

All other students: 2.00 or higher overall GPA

Note: Transfer grades are not used in the calculation of the overall GPA.

These minimum retention standards supersede any previously published standards and are in effect for new as well as returning undergraduate students, effective fall 2005.
