August
- Register for PROF 100-1 Survey of Career Fields if confused about selecting a career or major. Class starts on 8/25/14.
- Participate in Welcome Dragon Week activities.
- “Like” the SUNY Oneonta Career Development Center Facebook page.
- Explore DragonLink at www.oneonta.edu/career and complete your profile.
- Check out part-time job listings on campus and in the community on DragonLink.
- Complete appropriate employment paperwork at the Career Development Center in 110 Netzer. Remember to bring your original identification documentation!
- Start working at your new job.
- Visit CADE to learn more about tutoring available on campus.
- Start attending Freshmen 15 series programs and events.

September
- Go to Club Expo on 9/3/14 and considering joining a club related to your major and/or interests.
- Maintain full-time enrollment (12 s.h. or more) for TAP Certification.
- Attend Study Abroad Fair.
- Register for LEAD at Oneonta.
- Register for PROF 100-2 Survey of Career Fields if confused about selecting a career or major. Class starts on 9/30/14.

October
- Register for Emerging Leaders.
- Meet with your academic advisor to discuss Spring classes.
- Meet with a career counselor to discuss your Summer 2015 plan.
- Contact the CSRC about participating in a community service activity.
- Attend the Graduate and Professional School Fair on 10/27/14.
- Attend author Marjane Satrapi’s lecture on 10/29/14.

November
- Attend Emerging Leaders Program.
- Attend annual CSRC Conference on Volunteerism.
- Register for Spring classes.
- During Thanksgiving break, meet with someone who works in the career field you wish to pursue and conduct an informational interview.

December
- Study for finals.
- Write your resume.
- Start looking for summer jobs and internships.

January
- Attend NYC Internship Fair on 1/9/15.
- Select your academic programs: majors, minors, and/or concentrations.
- Register for PROF 100-1 Survey of Career Fields if confused about selecting a career or major. Class starts on 1/21/15.
- File your FAFSA for next year’s financial aid, including Federal Work-Study.

February
- Maintain full-time enrollment (12 s.h. or more) for TAP Certification.
- Have your resume critiqued by Career Development Center staff.
- Continue search for summer job and internship opportunities.
- Attend the Summer Internship Opportunities Fair on 2/11/15.
- Register for PROF 100-2 Survey of Career Fields if confused about selecting a career or major. Class starts on 2/25/15.

March
- Schedule a mock interview at the Career Development Center or use InterviewStream.
- Register for Summer classes.

April
- Run for a leadership position in a club or organization.
- Register for Fall classes.

May
- Study for finals.
- Pick up the Sophomore Checklist before you leave campus.
- Start your summer job or internship.