August
- Update your DragonLink profile.
- Receive Federal Work-Study assignment, if applicable.
- Check out part-time job listings on campus and in the community on DragonLink.
- Complete appropriate employment paperwork at the Career Development Center.
- Visit CADE to learn more about tutoring available on campus.

September
- Complete the Summer Experience Survey.
- Attend Study Abroad Fair.
- Research two - three career fields to pursue.
- Register for LEAD at Oneonta.
- Take PROF 100 Survey of Career Fields, if confused about selecting a career or major.
- Maintain full-time enrollment (12 s.h. or more) for TAP Certification.
- Join a club related to your major.
- Develop long term and short term career goals.

October
- Over the college break, visit your high school and volunteer to help or speak to classes about your college experience.
- Sign up for Emerging Leaders.
- Attend the Graduate and Professional School Fair.

November
- Attend Emerging Leaders Program.
- Attend annual CSRC Conference on Volunteerism.
- Register for Spring classes.
- During Thanksgiving break, meet with someone who works in the career field you wish to pursue and conduct an information interview.

December
- Study for finals.
- Write your resume.
- Start looking for internships.

January
- Attend NYC Internship Fair.
- Consider graduate school and work on building relationships with faculty for references later.
- Select your academic programs: majors, minors, and/or concentrations.

February
- Maintain full-time enrollment (12 s.h. or more) for TAP Certification.
- Schedule a time to attend “Writing Under Pressure” workshop at CADE
- Schedule a time to take the College Writing Exam (CADE).
- Have your resume critiqued by Career Development Center staff.
- Search for summer job opportunities.
- Attend the Summer Internship Opportunities Fair.
- File your FAFSA for next year’s financial aid, including Federal Work-Study.

March
- Schedule a mock interview at the Career Development Center or use InterviewStream.
- Research jobs.
- Register for Summer classes.
- Go to International Education Office to research studying abroad opportunities.

April
- Run for a leadership position in a club or organization.
- Register for Fall classes.
- Develop a contingency plan in case immediate career plans are not realized.
- 750 days until Graduation!

May
- Study for finals.
- Start your summer job or internship.