

I joined Greek Life because

By: Jade Galano, Phi Sigma Sigma Sorority (ΦΣΣ)

Coming into college I was absolutely clueless about what sororities were all about. All I knew was that I had no interest at all in ever doing one until I met the girls of Phi Sigma Sigma. I met a few of the girls through a mutual friend second semester of freshman year. I knew they were in a sorority but didn't know what it was all about. When they told me to check out some of their on campus events I had little interest in going. Last minute my roommate asked me to go with her and I agreed.

After leaving the event I learned about Phi Sig's philanthropy, all the great things they did for the community, and was immediately able to see how close the girls really were. Though I was hesitant at first, I came to realize this was something I really wanted to be a part of. I was ecstatic to get a bid and was initiated in fall 2010. I joined a sorority that was about more than just having fun; it was also about being active members of society and bettering our community. Along with this, I have also made 51 best friends. Joining Greek Life has been one of the best decisions I've made so far in college.
