

NOTE OF THANKS

Once again I am delighted to be able to express my gratitude to the many individuals who have helped with the preparation of this volume of Educational Change, particularly the members of the New York State Foundations of Education Association for their continued trust in me through many difficult times.

There are, however, individuals who have been intimately involved with the preparation of the present volume. To begin with thanks are due to the contributors for their scholarship and their patience through the inordinate delay in bringing out the fruits of their labor. The work is no less timely now than it was when they first put it into form.

The following have given generously of their time, energy, and skill. Barbara Paugh, Director of the Graphics and Publications Department at SUNY Oneonta has been involved with this journal since the Spring of 1995. Her concern has made the work much smoother and far more pleasant. Lorin Levins of the same department has conscientiously prepared and readied the proofs for printing. Her skills are evident in the product before you and I am immensely grateful to her. Clover Bobnick, Supervisor of the Print Shop at SUNY Oneonta has made it possible for us to have copies in time for the NYSFEA's annual meeting in April, 2008 at Nazareth College.

In addition the following have been generous with their expertise, insights and sound advice: Dr. Magnus Bassey of Queens College, Dr. Jane Fowler Morse of SUNY Geneseo, and Dr. Christopher Keegan and Dr. Betty Wambui, both of SUNY Oneonta. Dr. Douglas Shrader, Chair of the Philosophy Department at SUNY Oneonta has been more than a good colleague and given generously of his time and resources. The Secretary of the Philosophy Department at SUNY Oneonta, Cindi Hall, has provided excellent secretarial support in a timely manner.

I am grateful to all of them.

The Editor
