

Philosophy Outside The Margins

Faculty Lecture Series in Honor of Ralph Watkins

Sponsored by The Center for Multicultural Experience

Thursday, May 8th at 7pm "The Morality of Dealing Drugs"

All lectures are at the Center for Multicultural Experiences in Lee Hall.

Chris Keegan is Assistant Professor of Africana/Latino Studies and Philosophy at The State University of New York at Oneonta. He teaches courses and does research on the moral and political philosophies of liberation, protest, and democracy, especially in relation to traditionally disenfranchised and politically excluded communities. He holds an M.A. and Ph.D. in Philosophy from SUNY Buffalo, along with a B.A. in Philosophy and a M.A.T. in English, both from Union College.

For more information, please contact Mary Bonderoff at 436-2663. Faculty members interested in presenting at the Center for Multicultural Experience can also contact Mary Bonderoff.