At Hunt Union Red Dragon Theater

Promoting Solidarity, Justice, and Environmental Responsibility
Through Educational Film Screenings and Discussions

Just over the border in Mexico is an area peppered with maquiladoras: massive factories owned by the world's largest multinational corporations. Carmen and Lourdes work at maquiladoras in Tijuana, where each day they confront labor violations, environmental devastation and urban chaos.

Maquilapolis [City of factories] Tuesday, October 21, 4-6 p.m.

Explores the environmental devastation and urban chaos of Tijuana's assembly factories and the female laborers who have organized themselves for social action. Maquiladora workers produce televisions, electrical cables, toys, clothes, batteries and IV tubes, they weave the very fabric of life for consumer nations.

"Maquilapolis: City of Factories" is a co-production of the Independent Television Service (ITVS) and is a project of Creative Capital, with support from the Sundance Institute Documentary Fund.
