Greeks of the Month

Rilwan Ameen - ΦΒΣ

Rilwan Ameen has been nominated as the Fraternity Member of the Month for February. He currently serves as the chapter President of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc. On campus he is involved in a number of various clubs and organizations. Throughout his time at Oneonta he has become a member of the EOP honor society Chi Alpha Epsilon, the national Greek honor society Order of Omega, and Omicron Delta Kappa honor society. In addition, he is currently an Academic Team Member in Littell Hall, and Lecturer Chair of CUAC and has worked at the college call center. To benefit his chapter, Rilwan has developed goals that he and his brothers strive to attain, ensures that all of Phi Beta Sigma’s programs run as smoothly as possible, and also attends meetings on the fraternity’s behalf. Rilwan is not only an outstanding Greek but also a highly respected member of our campus community.

Christina Manion - ΦΣΣ

Christina Manion has been nominated as the Sorority Member of the Month for February. Christina currently serves as the Presidents of Phi Sigma Sigma. Christina also serves as the Vice-President of the Inter-Greek Council under which she plans the Mr. and Mrs. Oneonta pageant, Greek Week, and serves as the chair of the Judicial Board. She is also a member of the Association for Secondary Educators, Phi Eta Sigma Honor Freshman Honor Society, and is enrolled in the Oneonta Honors Program. Christina works tirelessly to encourage and motivate her chapter to do the most they can in community service, fundraising, and overall sisterhood bonding. She is very passionate about her work in Greek life and always remains as upbeat and positive as possible. Christina has an extremely positive outlook on life and should be recognized for all that she has done to benefit our campus’ recognized Greek life program.
