Danielle Scheier is an excellent role model for Greek Life and deserves to be Greek of the Month. She has worked extremely hard throughout the month of October to set up tables for Pi Delta Chi Sorority to sell “I Heart Boobies” bracelets to raise money for breast cancer awareness, she needed to find places to sell the bracelets and she needed to coordinate with many people to figure out what times would be ideal for selling them. She helped raise over 200 dollars to donate to help raise breast cancer awareness. Danielle also took the time to find these bracelets and order them for the sorority, but what makes her stand out is that once the sorority sold out of bracelets, she was willing to make lists and specially order bracelets for many people on this campus. Danielle has taken many hours this past month to dedicate to this specific cause and she should be commended on doing so while working hard on her academics during a crucial time for her major.

Amanda Barone is a dedicated member of Sigma Delta Tau. Not only did she volunteer to serve as the sorority’s community service chair during her first semester as an active sister, but she also took on the position of historian during the same semester. As community service, she has offered her sorority with a multitude of different opportunities, such as blood drives as well as working with the CSRC to find more opportunities. She is extremely involved on campus and outside of Greek Life here at SUNY Oneonta. She is currently serving her second elected term on Senate and is currently shadowing the Director of External Affairs and Executive Vice President. She is also an Executive Counsel member of the SUNY Student Assembly as a State-Operated Representative of SUNYs Oneonta, Plattsburgh, Potsdam and Empire State College. She is a member of Habitat for Humanity and serves on their publicity committee, along with being a member of the Criminal Justice Club and is President of the Oneonta Future Alumni Club. Amanda is extremely involved and dedicated to Sigma Delta Tau, Greek Life and campus life and was recently elected as the Vice President of the Gamma Epsilon Chapter of SDT for the coming year. Her hard work and dedication to all aspects of her life prove that she is deserving of Greek of the Month.
